

Student Opportunity Newsletter, Week Three

This week we have many events helping you explore career opportunities, including careers that have a positive social impact, and careers in the arts and creative industries. Applications have also opened for our online international experience programme which will take place over the summer. Read on to find out more...

Careers with Social Impact Day

Wednesday 24 January 2024, 12 – 3pm, Rootes Building

Attend this mini careers fair to meet employers and find out more about career opportunities in sectors that have a positive social impact, including charity, healthcare, government and public services, sustainability and environment. You can also talk to alumni about their own career paths and Student Opportunity staff will be available to help you explore your options. No need to book, just bring your student ID card and turn up. Find out more

Spring Term's Programme of Social Impact Careers

If you're interested in a social impact career – a career which positively affects society, be it locally, nationally or globally – book onto events this term that will inform, inspire and support you in pursuing a career that makes a positive difference. Read the Programme of Social Impact Careers brochure for more.

This week's social impact events:

- 'If not now, then when? Why now is the time to choose a career with social impact' Key note speech – Wednesday 24 January, 4 – 4.45pm, S0.21 (Social Science)
- 'Not sure 'bout Law – what else can I do?' – Panel Event – Wednesday 24 January, 5 – 6.30pm, S0.21 (Social Science)

*

Get Experience

TeamWork 2024

Applications are now open for TeamWork, a four week, part-time, online international experience programme. You'll collaborate on a multi-disciplinary project with students from Warwick and other top global universities, supported by an organisation mentor. The project takes place for 10 hours per week, between 24 June and 19 July. Gain valuable work experience, improve your career confidence and develop your professional skills. One Team. One Project. Your Journey. Apply now

Internships and Placements Fair

Wednesday 31 January 2024, 1 – 4pm, Rootes Building

Meet over 30 employers offering internships and placements across a variety of sectors including not for profit, healthcare, engineering, science and technology and education. There will also be employability workshops and advice sessions running in parallel throughout the day, and a LinkedIn Photographer will be present if you would like a free professional headshot. Find out more

Exploring Careers in the Arts and Creative Industries

Tuesday 6 February, 2 – 4pm, Warwick Arts Centre

Are you interested in finding out more about how to build a career in the arts and creative industries and hear from people working in the sector? At this event you will have an opportunity to speak with a variety of industry professionals to gain a better understanding of their roles, how they got started and ask your questions. Drop in at any time to meet a whole host of industry experts. Book your place

*

Meet the Professionals

Our series of online and face to face events inviting Warwick alumni and guest speakers from a variety of sectors to share their experience begins this week. Sign up to the broad range of events to gain insight into a whole host of careers:

- Bloomberg – BPuzzled Challenge x University of Warwick
Wednesday 24 January, 4.30 – 8.30pm, S0.20 Social Studies
- Careers in Media and Journalism
Thursday 25 January, 6 – 7.30pm, online

Careers talk for engineering students – roles in Hong Kong

Wednesday 31 January, 1 – 3pm, the Oculus

Meet leading employers from Hong Kong who are looking to recruit students from engineering and STEM disciplines. Hear from the Development Bureau of the HKSAR Government, the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers and the Association of Consulting Engineers of Hong Kong and find out the opportunities they have available, what they are looking for and ask your questions. The talk is open to students from all nationalities. Book your place

Interview space in the Student Opportunity Hub

If you need a private space for online interviews or recording a video for applications (equipment available on site but you will need to bring a USB), there is an interview space in the Student Opportunity Hub, Senate House ground floor, SH0.05, which has space for two people. The room is available during Student Opportunity Senate House opening hours. Contact careers@warwick.ac.uk to check availability and book.