

Student Opportunity Newsletter, Week Ten

This week we're focusing on upcoming opportunities that you can apply for over the coming weeks, as well as skills development, international experiences and careers information for you to peruse. We hope you've had an enjoyable and enriching term, and that you have a well-deserved rest over the holiday period. We will be back at the start of the spring term with more co-curricular opportunities for you to explore and get involved with.

Warwick in Africa: Volunteer student teacher placements

Apply to be a volunteer student teacher, teaching Mathematics or English in secondary level schools in Ghana, South Africa or Tanzania, for six weeks during summer 2024.

Warwick in Africa provides support to teachers in partner schools and aims to provide young people in Africa with an enhanced learning experience from which they can build a positive and fulfilling future. Find out more and apply by 10 December 2023

URSS: applications open

The Undergraduate Research Support Scheme (URSS) enables you to work on a non-assessed, self-directed research project over the summer on a topic of your choosing. URSS provides an opportunity for you to gain first-hand experience of working on a research project to develop your research and transferable skills. Find out more and apply by 4 February 2024

Warwick Award

If you're looking to enhance your professional development, have a look at the Warwick Award and earn some Core Skills Points. The platform has a range of skills development opportunities that can be completed remotely, such as introductory Moodle courses on communication, critical thinking and digital literacy, as well as virtual work experience opportunities offered via Forage. Login or register for the Warwick Award

Freshfields Stephen Lawrence Scholarship Scheme

The Freshfields Stephen Lawrence Scholarship Scheme offers a 15-month development programme of legal work experience, coaching and mentoring in London. The Bank of England and Aon are partners of the scheme, making it ideal if you're interested in working in legal or financial related organisations in London. The scheme is open to first year undergraduate students who identify as male and Black African or Black African-Caribbean. Find out more and apply by 18 January 2024

Short Term Mobility

If you're interested in studying, working or volunteering abroad around your degree without interfering with your course length, browse the short term mobility opportunities.

The Careers Blog: Will AI take over graduate jobs?

Explore the careers blog for regular articles on the job market, applications, interviews, job schemes and more.